

scale 1/50

scale 1/200

Composition I/X

The House Without Function is Space. Three tectonic elements are combined to provide a shelter in a natural environment. Different scales emerge from a simple Intersection. The House without function is neither inside nor outside, it intends to be a continuum between the body and the surroundings.

