

1. floor

ground floor

Our design consist of two separated volumes, on the roof level connected with membrane and on the first floor connected with net. This composition frames the spectacular view of the rice fields. On the ground floor there is a canteen with interior and exterior seating and on the upper floor is a library with possible „net-chilling“.