IN'N'OUT VILLAGE
Our project is an impression about rural Chinese village.

There are 25 "huts" in the village.

Each of them consists only of necessary elements - a roof, a table and a shelter-box for books.

It shifts its function according to users position - if children eat they face each other, if they read they face the surrounding garden.