

Fish of communication

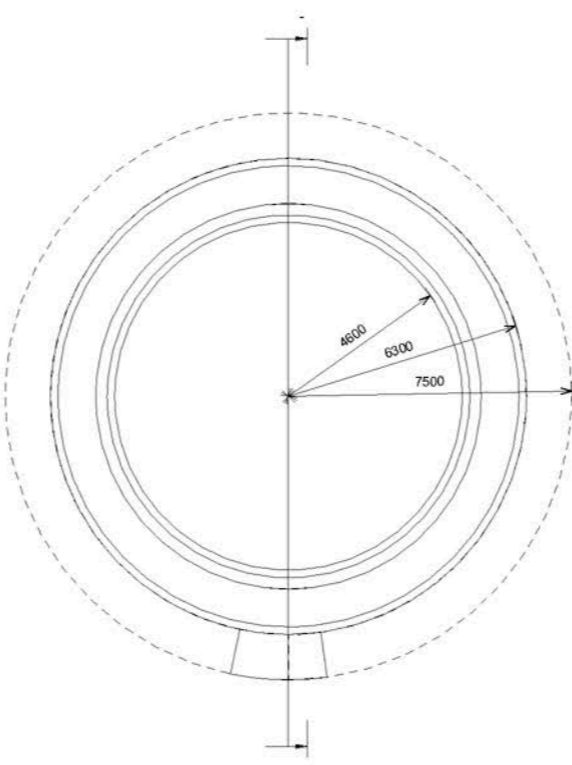

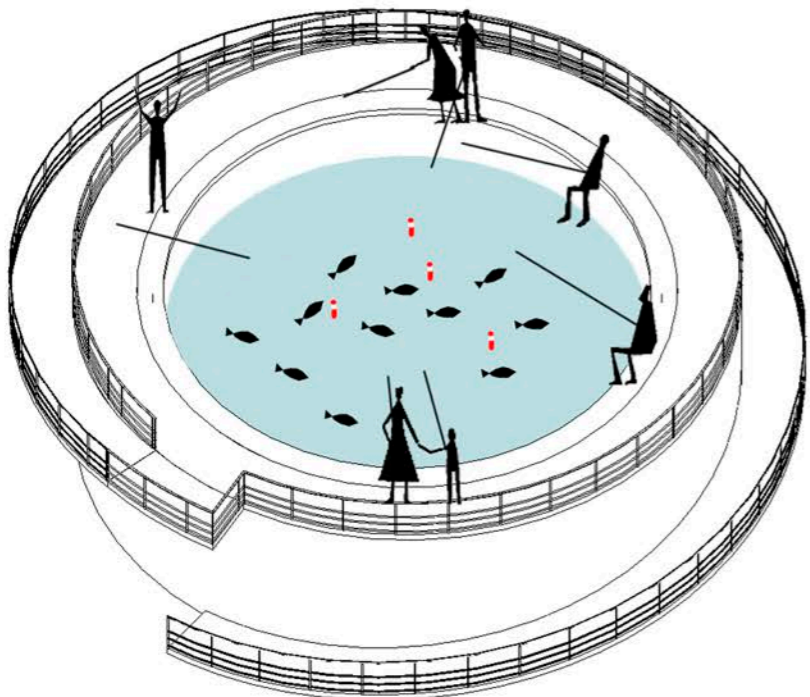

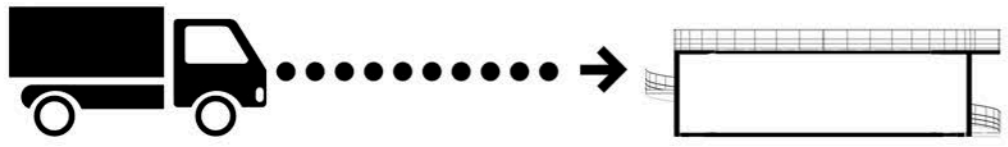

Hunting and fishing from primitive times brought people together, because the common goal, common interests form the ground for closer communication. Even today, a fishing trip is an excellent occasion to meet friends, meet new people.

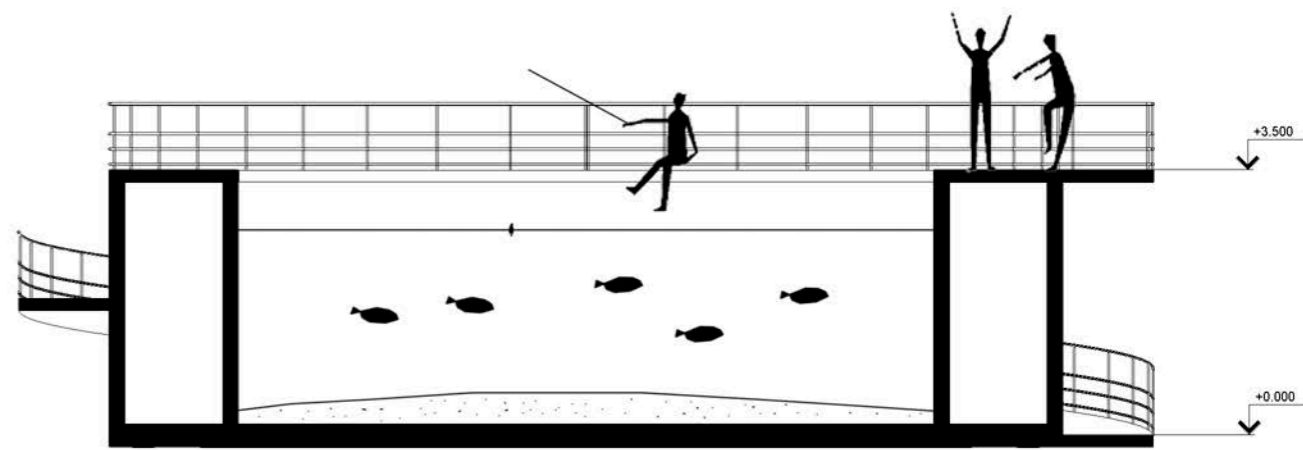

Why not give cities fishing spaces where everyone could join this activity and at the same time make new friends?

How it works:

1. Anyone can buy a fishing ticket for the whole day. In the complete set with the subscription the fishing rod and top dressing is given.
2. Everyone who bought a subscription has the opportunity to catch as many fish as he likes.
3. At the end of each day the truck brings fish, which is launched into the pool.
4. Entrance for children under 12 years old - free of charge.
