

GO ALONE COME ALONG

Our concept is giving people what they lost. In this room we had tried to indulge the basic five senses of people. A person entering the room will be greeted with a musical prayer wheel pillar going through spiral staircase, hence the touch element. Then entering the main part he will be surprised with nature i.e, sun in form of skylight, earth in form of grass and water in pit, delighting his other senses.

